About ACAMS

The Association of Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialists® (ACAMS®) is a membership based organization that serves as a platform for career development and professional networking.

ACAMS also offers the Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist (CAMS) designation. Candidates earn the CAMS credential by successfully completing a rigorous examination designed by industry leaders and an independent testing firm. The examination provides an objective measure of a professional's knowledge of industry best practices, anti-money laundering standards and other areas that are crucial in the field.

Candidates wishing to take the CAMS Examination must have a minimum of 20 qualifying points based on education, other professional certification, and professional experience in the anti-money laundering field, in addition to providing 3 references.

KESDEE's e-learning courses are now approved for 3 CAMS credits.
